

TRAIN TO CHISANA IS A DEATH TRAP

This is Report of Jack Ealbeck,
Deputy Sheriff, Who Arrives
at White Horse

By HILLIARD LEMMON WIFE.

DAWSON, Y.T., Jan. 5.—Andy Taylor, who brought the first gold from the head of White River, leaves tomorrow for Chisana driving a heavy team of eight horses and supplies. He will travel to the Chisana by White River and Beaver. A party is outfitting who were the first stagers at the gold fields and will take in heavy loads for the coming spring. It is reported that the White River is in good condition for travel.

Jack Ealbeck, former deputy sheriff, arrived at White Horse this afternoon, after going out by MacCarthy. He reports that the trail is a death trap and that everything outside the forests may now be a death trap. The best reports are to be obtained, he adds, in the White River valley.

FOREIGN BARK AT OTTAWA

OTTAWA, Jan. 5.—The ship, H. Perley, who returned to Ottawa Sunday from a European trip extending over two months, stated today that his trip was purely a personal one and without any significance.

BRITISH MINISTER TO MEXICO TRANSFERRED TO BRAZIL

Sir Lionel Gorman, who succeeded to Charles Murray Marling.

London, Jan. 5.—Sir Lionel Gorman, British minister to Mexico, is to be transferred to Rio de Janeiro as minister to Brazil. He was appointed to Mexico July 25, 1912, to succeed Francis Williams.

The successor to Sir Lionel Gorman at Mexico City will probably be Charles Murray Marling, of the diplomatic service. Sir Marling, who was transferred, is a promotion as far as salary is concerned, would be made more time ago, except for the fact that the British foreign office would not make the change while the minister was under fire for the alleged involvement in which he was made to reflect on the policy of the United States toward Mexico. Sir Marling, who is a former member of the staff of Sir Isaac D'Almeida, has had a long and varied career in the diplomatic service.

1013 FOREST FIRE LOSSES

Domitron Forestry Branch Reports Remarkably Small Loss on Reserves in Western Canada.

OTTAWA, Jan. 5.—An arrangement of forest fire loss on record in Canada was reached this afternoon on Domitron forestry reserves in the western provinces. From the first of April to the end of December several of the reserves were capped without a single fire over two acres in extent, the small fire that did occur being extinguished by the rangers before becoming any damage to standing timber. On the other hand, the timber forest reserve, which has an area of 12,175,516 acres, the fire loss amounted to but 1,117 acres, or a percentage of only 0.009 per cent. of the area of this reserve. On the Domitron forestry reserves in British Columbia, which have a total area of 4,258,489 acres, not a single fire succeeded in spreading over a larger area than ten acres, and the only green timber lost by fire was four acres of young lodge-pole pine. The records are not yet complete for Saskatchewan and Manitoba, but the available figures compare favorably with the Canadian totals. The above figures also compare favorably with corresponding ones in the national forests of the United States, where the area burned in 1912, although the smallest in recent years, was somewhat over 0.01 per cent. of the total reserved area.

SASKATCHEWAN DEBENTURES.

LONDON, Jan. 5.—Arrangements are being made for an issue of £5,000,000 of 5-1/2 per cent. five-year convertible debentures of the province of Saskatchewan at $94-1/2, the proceeds to be devoted to repaying the provincial treasury bills. The yield on the debentures after allowing for redemption will be 5-1/4 per cent.

MARITIME POTATOES CANNOT FIND MARKET IN UNITED STATES

WOODSTOCK, N.B., Jan. 5.—Potatoes to dealers were in session here this afternoon. Secretary Daggett and R. P. Gorman, of the provincial agricultural department and Mr. Gussow, of Ottawa, were present.

The question of potato duty was thoroughly discussed. Some dealers claimed that the so-called seed was worthless. It was the consensus of opinion that the present United States embargo would not be removed and the balance of the crop of potato this year would not likely find a market.

Mr. Gussow advised shipping west to Saskatchewan and Alberta but was told that the freight was more than the potatoes would bring, the present price offered being $1.35 and the freight $2.10.

A Nation-Wide Strike.

Chicago, Jan. 5.—Charles H. Meyer was credited today with saying that Samuel Gompers and other officers of the American Federation of Labor would meet in Washington in a few days to consider the possibility of calling a nationwide strike of labor organizations in the coal mines of Michigan.

THEATRES AND MUSIC

By G. TEN WRIGHT

PLEASING OPPORTUNITIES IN OPHIUM VAUDEVILLE.

Two acts divide the headline position on the Ophiem vaudeville circuit this week. "The School of Acting," a travesty of a particularly amusing nature, is produced by William H. Murphy and Miss Nicole, who are perfectly successful in inducing as many laughs out of the audience as any vaudeville act. Miss Nicole, who is the other headliner, sings four songs in a style peculiarly her own and which appeals strongly to the audience. In addition to a catchy stage style, Miss Nicole wears some flashing gowns that decidedly add to the attraction of her act.

Leo Carrillo offers a character impersonation in the impersonation of the president of the "Grand Officers' Association," making a speech in their celebration of the centenary of Gen. Washington's birthday.

Lucille Valmont and Jack Kerner offer some living skits, including one with some songs and prove very acceptable.

The Maxine Brothers and their little dog, Holly, provide an excellent two act in a skit, very like "The Storm," and while picturesque it might be considered a comedy.

ALL MANNER OF ACTS.

At P. M. PANTHEON, THEATRE.

Miss Jean Keefe, the little lady who has been the heroine of many a moving picture play, with a chorus of a dozen more or less handsome youths, who amuse the audience with a number of fairly good imitations of college girls, is the make up of the Pantomime bill this week. She is headlined on the program, and while her support is not of exceptional merit she herself is decidedly entertaining. Her sketch is a simple one being intended merely to afford her an opportunity to dance, pose and sing, all of which she does prettily. Although her voice is not strong, it being difficult in these times to hear what she is saying, the back seat, her personality and stage presence is charming. Every movement she makes is effective.

Following a succession of acts, musical and comic, the Pantomime bill is a rather quiet affair. The Pantomime bill is a rather quiet affair. The Pantomime bill is a rather quiet affair.

Yesterday afternoon, the program was cut short by the absence of Walter Schriebe and Lillian Mulvey in a sketch, which was presented by "The Pantomime" which failed to reach Edmonton in time for the matinee performance. The program was cut short by the absence of Walter Schriebe and Lillian Mulvey in a sketch, which was presented by "The Pantomime" which failed to reach Edmonton in time for the matinee performance.

The Hughes Musical Trio make much noise. Their act is heralded by the blaring of trumpets and cornets, which they continue to blow for a considerable time after the curtain rises. They play ragtime among other things.

More ragtime followed when Mann and Belle, two girls who might make a good thing out of it, sang and danced. Their act was a short one and received a fair amount of applause.

An extra installment of ragtime followed when the "The Village Belle" came on. It is a sketch of a girl who wears a corset and their comedy is not the kind that stays. The audience was not kind to them.

YOUNGEST CRITIC QUOTE APPROVES OF MRS. WIGGS.

"Let them that we say down in front, and it's just a beautiful play, and the actors did the part very well, especially Love Mary and Mr. Stubbs and Miss Hays."

That was the verdict of the Youngest Critic on Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch, which is blooming at the Lyceum theatre this week. The youngest critic is eleven and a delectable little fellow, and his verdict, which audience are sure to share, gives him a reputation as a critic.

His verdict on the play was a delectable one. He was very much pleased with the play, and his verdict, which audience are sure to share, gives him a reputation as a critic.

I'm going down to the library in the morning and get the book that I want. It'll all over again. It was just grand. To which comprehensive decision the startled reviewers decided to add only a word, and that of appreciation. Director Cornell has handled the production well both in the matter of staging and in the selection of the company. For a popular-priced production it is finely done, and almost the entire organization did splendid work even considering the fact that last night was the actor's business—his nervous first.

SASKATCHEWAN FINANCES.

RAMKATON, Jan. 5.—As a result of the year-end collection of taxes, the city is practically assured that there will be no financial embarrassment during 1914. Of the monies due in December about $100,000 has been collected and payments are expected to reach the million mark shortly. The city has about $1,700,000 of bonded debt in London and the present estimate will increase the amount to $2,000,000. On the sale of these bonds, which is likely before spring, over twenty of bond times at the city hall will disappear.

Disgraced Scenes Witnessed
Obsequies of Harry Pagan (11).
Anglo-French Comedian

Paris, Jan. 5.—Disgraced scenes were witnessed Saturday at the funeral of Harry Pagan, the Anglo-French comedian. The funeral was witnessed by 250,000 people, but the hour before the Rue Lafayette, in which he lived, was impassable. Friends could not reach the house for disorderly crowds. The wreaths piled around the door were torn in pieces by riotous seekers.

When the procession left its home for the church, the mourners found it almost impossible to pass through the crowd, and one, an old friend of Pagan's, who was mistaken by the crowd for his father, was the object of an angry demonstration which the police were forced to stop. At the

One of the cars, a 1934 Buick sedan, was turned north on First street, car No. 22, Motormen Foster failed to stop on the east side of First street, and according to the motorman this was because the car skidded on the slippery rails.

Motorman Smith of car No. 12 saw the difficulty of the westbound, and threw on all his power. He thus saved his car from being rammed amidships, but the rear platform took the whole force of the collision and was cut off, leaving the body of the car just as so much paper.

No one was injured, and the fire service was not seriously disorganized, either car left the rails.
